Tim Lee Bio: In 1971 while serving in the United States Marine Corps in South Vietnam, Sergeant Tim Lee gave both of his legs to America. Instead of quitting or becoming bitter Tim allowed God to use this major event in his life to propel him into a ministry that no one could have imagined at that time.

Tim has spent the past 40 years in active ministry as a full-time evangelist. He has ministered in 49 states and various countries around the world. He is known as the "Legendary Speaker" at MCRD Parris Island, where he speaks to thousands of Marines and Marine Recruits each year. He is a Fox News contributor and has written two books.

He and his wife Connie have been married for 46 years and have three wonderful children and six awesome grandchildren.
